"Leading Through the Place Called "In Between"

Bobby Bogard

*A leader is tested when they must navigate through periods of uncertainty. These are seasons where a leap into the unknown is being required but the outcome is unsure. Some would call this "the place in between." It's that space in life after the leader jumps off the ledge, but before they land on their feet. That could be a time when a financial risk is taken but before the capital is raised. It could be a season where a new opportunity presents itself but the team isn't in place to make it happen. The place in between is scary. Decisions made here will either catapult the leader's influence, or empower attitudes that lead to failure.

THE BATTLE OF UNCERTAINTY

The battle field in uncertain times is crucial ground and must be taken at all costs. The leader will either lean into fear or stay confident in faith.

- Fear and faith are both fighting for footing.
- Motivation is at risk.
- Emotions are stretched.
- Self-leadership is questioned.
- Severe external challenges can emerge during these "middle moments."
- Leaders must sustain their momentum, maintain their poise, and lead forward with strength.
- They must be able to look insecurity in the face and say, "I've got this!"

"4 TRUTHS FROM PAUL TO TIMOTHY IN THE BETWEEN"

Paul writes Timothy from prison to give him some encouragement. His words to Timothy have some advice relevant to the middle.

- 1 • LEADERS MUST NEVER FORGET THEY ARE GIFTED TO LEAD
When times are uncertain there will be many voices. And while leaders should take counsel to heart, in the end, they have to step up and lead. So Paul reminds Timothy not to forget the spiritual gift imparted to him by others. Leaders are anointed to lead.
- 2 • AND INSECURE LEADER WILL BE EATEN ALIVE
The voice of the multitude or the naysayers will come. Timothy is admonished to recognize that "God has not given him a spirit of fear and timidity, but of power, love and self-discipline." 2 Timothy 1:7.
- 3 • RIGHT OR WRONG A LEADER MUST STEP UP AND LEAD BODILY THROUGH THE FOG
without regard to what others think or say. Otherwise, at that moment, he will no longer be the leader but the follower.
- 4 • SPIRITUAL LEADERS RELY ON THEIR FAITH
Paul exhorts young Timothy to lead from the position of sound doctrine and the power of the Holy Spirit. Leaders lead through the place called "in between" when they know how to get wisdom from God's Word and yield to the power of the Holy Spirit. God's Word establishes the principles of life to make wise decisions. The power of the Holy Spirit guides the leader to truth, and provides the wherewithal to weather the emotional upheaval.

MAKING THE JUMP INTO THE UNKNOWN

All leaders have to make a jump into the unknown at some point. What they do before they land will set the organization up for success or failure.

3 THINGS DISCOVERED "IN BETWEEN"

The "in between" will identify those who are courageous enough to lead with confidence.

Gaps which provide refining fire for emerging leaders.

Unfamiliar seasons reveal strategic leaders on a team.
